PACKER FIGHTING HELM COMMITTEE Chicago, Ill. May 8.—Edward Tilden, president of the National Packing company, is fighting every effor of the Helm investigating committee of the Illinois state legislature to bring him before it for testimony regarding the alleged Lorimer "slush fund," of which he is said to have been one of the collectors. Cited for contempt of the committee for his refusals to appear before t. Tilden secured a habeas corpus writ before the warrant could be served upon him. When it was served, he was under arrest exactly one minute, and then was freed by the writ. It has been made evident that the committee will have to do some difficult maneuvering to drag Tilden before the members and make him tell what he knows about his part in the alleged crooked work that 'put Lorimer over."
